

CGLA 10th Grade Summer Reading

The Required book for 10th grade:
Enrique's Journey by Sonia Nozario

Prompt: Choose one scene from Enrique's journey to the United States. Write a narrative essay from Enrique's point of view that describes not only the events of the scene but also his thoughts and feelings. Be sure to include descriptive and specific details. Your essay should be at least two typed pages.

Suggested choice books:

Realistic Fiction:

Half-Broke Horses by Jeanette Walls

Copper Sun by Susan Draper

The Book Thief by Markus Zusak

Classic Fiction:

Jane Eyre by Charlotte Bronte

Animal Farm by George Orwell

Lord of the Flies by William Golding

Frankenstein by Mary Shelley

Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen

Historical Fiction:

The Invention of Wings by Sue Monk Kidd

In the Time of Butterflies by Julia Alvarez

Nonfiction:

Into the Wild by Jon Krakauer

My Beloved World by Sonia Sotomayor

Fantasy/Dystopia:

Epitaph Road by David Patenaude

Complete the writing activity for your required book. You must have this response completed before the start of school. For your choice books, fill out your READO card and a reading log for each book.